Bert Harris Missing-Bert Harris of Butte, aged 22, and his mother came to this city last Wednesday from Montana, and when the train was at Farmington, young Harris went into rear of the car, and was not seen His mother took rooms at the Conway on West Temple street, and with the help of the police, is try-ing to locate her boy. At the same time, he is said to have been seen in this city asking help from people to

"Rough House" in Laundry-The American laundry, across from the lice station was the scene yesterday afternoon of a "rough house. of the girls operating a machine got her hand caught in the roller and was slightly injured. Chris Opie, a driver, started to apply turpentine to the injury when Engineer J. W. Clark snatched the can away from Opie. This started a fight during which several took a hand. The police were called in and placed Opie and Clark under arrest. They were released after furnishing $19 ball,

Brings Good Report-Hyrum Sainsbury is back from a trip to Garland where he found the entire country in a high state of cultivation. The beets are in fine shape as there is no fly or blight this season, while the dry land grain is so high that heading machines can not be used, but the regular reapers have to be called into service, and the grain has to be bound and stacked just like the irrigated Generally, the dry wheat only grows to a very moderate height and heading machines are used, which clip off the tops and leaves the straw to be plowed under or burned over. The country looked very attractive to Mr. Sainsbury, Zion's Saving Bank and Trust Company was organized in 1873; has opened over 43,000 savings accounts, and now opens an average of more than 10 new accounts every day. We want YOUR business. Joseph F. Smith, President; George M. Cannon, Cashier.

ANOTHER ARREST MADE.

Frank Moultrie, Garbage Man, Charged

With Creating Nuisance.

Deputy, Sheriff Fred Butler yesterday arrested Frank Moultrie, a garage at Fourth South and Eleventh West streets, and thus creating a nuis-ance. This is the dumping ground which was protested against last week by the residents of that vicinity and resulted in the arrest of Health Com-missioner Stewart, Sanitady Inspector Margetts and three other garbage wagon drivers upon the charge of creating a nuisance. The complaint against Moultrie was sworn to by Rev. J. H. Worrell, who also swore to the complaints against the other men involved doultrie was taken before Justice of the Peace Dana T. Smith and was re-leased upon his own recognizance until the date of his arraignment, which has not been set.

GREEK ATTACKS GUARDSMAN.

Drink Crazed Man Struck Burkhardt With Billiard Cue

Fred J. Burkhardt, post quartermaster's sergeant, N. G. U., was viclously attacked about 11 o'clock last night by a drink crazed Greek, whose name could not be learned, in a saloon at 143 west Second South street.

From all accounts it appears that the Greek had had a row with a soldier. The latter had left the place and when Burkhardt appeared, the Greek sprang upon him and struck him over the head and shoulders with a billiar Burkhardt fell to the floor and as stunned for several minutes. Greek dashed out of the place and dis Burkhardt was taken to the armory where his injuries were at-tended to. He was slated to leave this morning for Fort D. A. Russell with
